by very nearly four hundred persons. These subscriptions, too, came from widely sepa-rated parts of the country, showing that the interest which this great educational move ment has aroused is truly national Yesterday's mail was full of interesting and instructive features. The largest amount contributed by any one person was $100. The greater portion of the sum sent in was in the dimes and quarters, which goes to show that the masses realize that this is fund and contribute accordingly. Among the States from which subscriptions were received were: Indiana, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maine, Alabama, Minnesota, Vermont, Maryland and Michigan. The District of Columbia sent in two contributions. That the workingmen are waking up to the fact that the Republican doctrine that protection increases wages is a fallacy was demonstrated by the letters received from an fron worker at Port Henry, and from a cloakmaker in this city. Their letters, to be found elsewhere, are political tracts in themselves A man wro sends $2, says that for every thousand of $2 subscriptions sent in he will remit an additional $2. Be one of a thousand then, to make him keep good his educational campaign in those Western how easily the fund can be helped States which have gone Republican in Na- by a little personal exertion. In ten minutes It's worth trying, anyway. A New Jersey barber encloses a modest mite to aid the upon his suffrages. He calls upon all barbers to support Cleveland instead of Harrison This is certainly an issue in the campaign not hitherto considered. What these men have done to spread the cause of tariff reform in the West you can do If you would not be recreant to your duty a a citizen and as a Democrat subscribe at
